

PROCESSING YOUR CASE

Workers' Compensation Resources

The amount your case settles for is directly tied to your average weekly wage at the time of the injury.

Case timeline:

#1: Obtaining information

- Initial Interview
- Representation Agreement signed
- Case filed with WC Commission

#2: Medical treatment

- Follow doctor's advice
- Keep accurate records & items related to injury
- Update us on treatment status

#3: Discharge from treatment

- BLO requests records & bills
- BLO determines medical chronology

#4: Evaluate case

- BLO determines nature of condition
- BLO reviews medical bills
- BLO calculates settlement range
- Client approves range

#5: Settlement

- Settlement demand & negotiation
- Contracts signed & approved
- Settlement check issued to client

How you assist:

- Provide a Work Status Note from every Dr. appointment
- Respond to our requests in a timely manner
- Inform us of changes in treatment (i.e. surgery scheduled, restrictions changed, discharged from care, etc.)
- Forward all related bills, invoices & receipts
- Give an accurate & complete list of all medical providers

AWW is the Average Weekly Wage for the 52-weeks prior to the date of injury.

Common Mistakes

- Trying to convince doctor you're hurt
- Discussing case w/ doctors
- Posting activities on social media
- Sending info via work email
- Discussing case with anyone else
- Taking others legal advice

Email your Work Status & Progress notes as a PDF, NOT AS A PICTURE! We can help if you're unsure how to do this.

Contact Us If:

- Restrictions not honored
- Missing TTD Checks
- Treatment not approved
- Discharged from treatment

TTD (total temporary disability) is 66.6% of your AWW to pay you while off work.
